Title of Policy: Academic Integrity

Policy
Northwest Technical College promotes the highest standards of academic integrity and the highest regard for truth and honesty. Violations of academic integrity include the following:

1. The attempt by learners to present as their own any work not actually performed by them
2. Collusion, fabrication, and cheating on examinations, papers, and other course-related work
3. Stealing, duplicating, or selling examinations
4. Substituting for other in class discussions or examinations
5. Producing other learners’ papers or projects
6. Knowingly furnishing false or misleading academic information to college officials on official college records
7. Altering information on official college records

Violations of this policy are covered under the Campus Code of Conduct. In accordance with this Code, learners who, after due process, are found to have violated the Academic Integrity policy, shall be subject to college sanctions that may include discretionary sanctions, including failure on assignments and/or examinations, suspension or expulsion.

Purpose
To promote the highest level of academic honesty and integrity.
