Title of Policy Credit for Military Coursework

Policy

The College recognizes that individuals acquire substantial learning from courses taken as a member of the United States Armed Forces. As a result, the College awards educational credits for courses that were part of a veteran's military training or service if the courses meet the standards of the American Council on Education or equivalent standards for awarding academic credits.

Purpose

To provide an opportunity for learners to be awarded credit for military coursework.

Responsibility

The table below describes responsibilities for this policy:

Group/Individual	Responsibility
Dean	Ensure implementation of policy.
Registrar with Program Instructors	Analyze military coursework submitted for credit analysis and verify NTC credits awarded, as appropriate.
Registrar	Appropriately transcript credits awarded as equivalent to NTC courses.
