

If you are currently enrolled at an institution within the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities System, please read Note A. If you are not currently enrolled at an institution within the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities System, please read Note B.

NOTE A: The University is asking you to provide information that includes private information under state and federal law. The University is making this request in order to provide summary information about your program of study to students and prospective students.

You are not legally required to provide the information the University is requesting. With some exceptions, unless you consent to further release of private information, access to this information will be limited to school officials, including faculty who have legitimate educational interests in the information. Under certain circumstances federal and state laws authorize release of private information without your consent:

- To federal, state or local officials for purposes of program compliance, audit or evaluation;
- If the information is sought with a subpoena, court order, or otherwise permitted by other state or federal law; and
- To an institution engaged in educational research or accrediting agency.

NOTE B: The University is asking for this information in order to provide summary information about your program of study to students and prospective students. Under Minnesota law the requested information is public information. You are not legally required to provide the information the University is requesting.
